

KOALA

Phascolarctos cinereus

Digging In!

Koalas have two different types of teeth to help them eat eucalyptus leaves. Incisors at the front of their mouths strip leaves off branches and molars help cut and grind the leaves to make them easily digestible.

Contact JULIE at 811
before digging! It's FREE!

JULIE Kids.com

BROOKFIELD
ZOO
CHICAGO